MINSKOFF THEATRE

CELEBRATING JIMMY NEDERLANDER

James M. Nederlander or “Jimmy,” Chairman of The Nederlander Organization, was the visionary theatrical impresario who built one of the largest private live entertainment companies in the world known for producing and presenting world-class entertainment since 1912.

Jimmy started working in the theatre at age 7 sweeping floors for his father, David Tobias (D.T.) Nederlander, in Detroit, Michigan. During a career that spanned over 70 years, Jimmy amassed a network of premier legitimate theatres including nine on Broadway: the Brooks Atkinson, Gershwin, Lunt-Fontanne, Marquis, Minskoff, Nederlander, Neil Simon, Richard Rodgers, and the world famous Palace; in Los Angeles: The Pantages; in London: the Adelphi, Aldwych, and Dominion; and in Chicago: the Auditorium, Broadway Playhouse, Cadillac Palace, and CIBC Theatres, and the Oriental Theatre which in 2019 was renamed the James M. Nederlander Theatre in Jimmy’s honor.

He produced over one hundred acclaimed Broadway musicals and plays including Annie, Applause, La Cage aux Folles, Les Liaisons Dangereuses, Me and My Girl, Nine, Noises Off, Peter Pan, Sweet Charity, The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby, The Will Rogers Follies, Woman of the Year, and many more.

“Generous,” “loyal” and “trusted” are just a few of the accolades his friends use to describe him. Jimmy was beloved by the industry and the recipient of many distinguished honors including an Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts from the University of Connecticut (2014), the Exploring the Arts Foundation Award (2014), the United Nations Foundation Champion Award (2012), The Broadway League’s Schoenfeld Vision for Arts Education Award (2011), the New York Pop’s Man of the Year (2008), and the special Tony Award for Lifetime Achievement (2004). To mark the Nederlanders’ centennial in 2012, The New York Landmarks Conservancy proclaimed Jimmy to be a “Living Landmark.”

The National High School Musical Theatre Awards is called the Jimmy Awards in celebration of his career-long dedication to supporting young talent.

Dear Papa...

We are so proud to be your grandchildren.

THE National High School Musical Theatre Awards

JIMMY AWARDS®

The Jimmy Awards®/National High School Musical Theatre Awards® (NHSMTA) is a celebration of outstanding achievement in vocal, dance, and acting performance, developed to elevate the profile of in-school arts education across America, provide college scholarships, and create pathways connecting promising young performers to the professional theatre industry. High school students qualify to compete in the national program by winning top honors at regional high school musical theatre awards competitions presented by Broadway League member performing arts centers. Each year, more than 140,000 students participate in these annual events. The program was founded in 2009 by Pittsburgh CLO, Executive Producer Van Kaplan; and Nederlander Alliances LLC, President James L. Nederlander and Founding Executive Director Susan Lee. It is produced annually by The Broadway League Foundation and Pittsburgh CLO. Named in honor of James M. Nederlander, the late legendary Broadway producer and theatre owner, The Jimmy Awards are supported by many leading theatre industry organizations.

The Broadway League Foundation Inc. acts as The Broadway League's charitable arm. Its mission is to enlighten and increase the public's knowledge, appreciation, and awareness of the theatrical arts. An important part of this mission is to build future audiences for theatre around the country, as well as to help establish the next generation of people who work on our stages and in our theatres. The following programs help fulfill this mission:

- The Jimmy Awards®/ National High School Musical Theatre Awards® (NHSMTA®) was established in 2009 to elevate the importance of theatre arts education in schools and reward excellence in student performance. The program impacts more than 140,000 students annually who participate in high school musical theatre competitions sponsored by professional theatres throughout the U.S.
- Broadway Bridges® works with Broadway producers, the New York City Department of Education's Office of Arts and Special Projects, and the United Federation of Teachers to offer $10 tickets for tenth graders in NYC's public high schools. The program's goal is to give every New York City public school student the chance to see a Broadway show before graduation. Since its launch in January of 2017, the program has brought over 61,000 students and chaperones to Broadway.
- The High School Broadway Shadowing Program introduces New York City public high school students to behind-the-scenes careers in live theatre. In the fall, 70 students join a day-long introduction to careers in theatre including management and marketing. Over February break, 25 students get an up-close view of what it takes to run a Broadway production. Since the program began ten years ago, nearly 400 BIPOC students from 55 high schools city-wide have participated.
- Careers.Broadway is a mobile-friendly website to help students and others learn about the thousands of non-performance career opportunities on Broadway and in theatres around the country. Careers.Broadway contains descriptions of 80 different over job positions on Broadway, from Accountant to Wardrobe Crew. Each listing contains links to relevant articles and videos, including those featuring BIPOC professionals. The site also includes information on where to find Broadway and professional theatre jobs, internships, and apprenticeships across the country, as well as an extensive FAQ/resources area.
- The Broadway Speakers Bureau® offers in-person and distance-learning programs to educate students about non-performance careers in the theatre through panels held at high schools, colleges, and universities.

Wells Fargo is proud to support The Jimmy Awards.

We applaud all of the talented nominees for The Jimmy Awards, which spotlight the importance of musical theater and arts education. An astounding classroom, the theater engages young minds and inspires youthful hearts. At Wells Fargo, we appreciate this strong link between arts and “smarts.”

Bravo!
